RE: Reference # R000307-071426, Right to Know Request of July 14, 2026.

[redacted],

The County of York received a Right to Know Request from you on July 14, 2026. You requested the following information:

"Pursuant to the Pennsylvania Right-to-Know Law, 65 P.S. § 67.101 et seq., I request copies of the following records:

All training materials provided to or used in the training of York County Office of Children, Youth and Families intake staff, intake supervisors, or caseworkers at any time from April 1, 2024 to the present, concerning:

- County jurisdiction over child abuse and general protective services referrals;
- Determining the county of residence of a subject child or subject family;
- Cross-county or inter-county referral routing, transfer, or notification;
- Designation of Primary Recipient and Secondary Recipient counties.

Responsive records include but are not limited to curricula, slide decks, handouts, presentation materials, training manuals, competency checklists, and written training bulletins.

This request seeks training materials of general application. It does not seek any record pertaining to any specific individual, referral, investigation, or case file, nor any record identifying any individual employee."

Please be advised that the County of York does not have separate training materials from the State. All caseworkers and supervisors receive their training through the Child Welfare Resource Center. Additionally, the York County Children Youth and Families does not determine the primary or secondary county jurisdiction. This is determined by the State Child Line. As a result, there are no documents that are responsive to your request in the County's possession or under its custody or control. Moore vs. Office of Open Records, 992 A.2d 997, 909 (Pa. Cmwlth. Ct. 2010). Pursuant to the Office of Open Records' final Decision in Jenkins vs. Pa. Dep't of State, OOR Dkt. AP 2009-065, it should be noted that: "It is not a denial of access when an agency does not possess records and [there is no] legal obligation to obtain them (see e.g. 65 P.S. §67.506(d)(1))."

You have the right to appeal any denial in writing to Office of Open Records, 555 Walnut Street, Suite 605, Harrisburg, PA 17101-2234. Your appeal must be filed with the Office of Open Records within fifteen (15) business days of the date of this response.
